TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY. With George Souls Spencer and Martha Hedman.

It deals with the business man and his stenographer, inter bringing in others, of course and results in one lice muddled affair. 'Scandai' is a drama you'll never forget. It pictures mudslinging in reality.

"fills t'ollege Wife" is the culmination of a college romance and proves very interesting throughout for the many difficulties the young couple have in keeping their marriage a secret. The husband's family have planned for him to marry a girl, and great things hapen, while they are trying to carry out their scheme.

EMPRESS.

Arnoid Daly, the popular star of the "Romance of Elsine," plays the leading role in the five-reel feature, "The Port of Missing Men." which is programed for today and tomorrow. This will be shown in addition to "The Romance of Elaine," and admirers of Arnold Daly will see him in two pictures on the same program. A special vandeville feature for today is the Four Musical Bonells. Sunday little Mary Pickford will be seen in "A Good Little Devil."

MAJESTIC.

There is something particularly breezy about a live-wire newspaper reporter, and many good stories originate in a newspaper office. In the feature offering at the Majestic, Sunday, William A. Brady's latest comedy drama success. "The Cub," with Martha Hedman and the irrepressible John Fines will be presented.
